March 18, 2005

To Karl Schatz & Margaret Hathaway Schatz
The Year of the Goat

It is with great pleasure that the American Dairy Goat Association extends its pledge of support to the American Goat exhibit:

- ★ To educate the American public about the varied and expanding role that goats are playing in American culture and agriculture today.
- ★ To inform the general public about the many wonderful goat products that are available locally and nationally.
- ★ To raise awareness of sustainable agriculture, heritage livestock, Slow Food, and other issues that are important to goat owners.

We strongly believe that the American Goat exhibit can benefit all segments of the goat industry and pledge the support of our Association's 13,000 members to help you reach your goals.

Sincerely,

Robin Saum
President, ADGA
